JOB SPECIFICATION

Gateley /

POSITION:	Bid Coordinator
LOCATION:	Birmingham
CONTRACT TYPE:	Permanent

The role

Reporting to the Bid Manager (BM) for Property, the Bid Coordinator will be responsible for supporting the BM in helping the business win profitable work through the sales and tender process.

This is an autonomous role which requires you to work collaboratively with the BM to support on a range of formal property tenders as well as produce credentials and proposals to support work winning within the legal and surveying businesses across the Property Platform. The role holder will work proactively to ensure all tenders are delivered on time and accurately, in compliance with client and regulatory requirements.

This is a collaborative role which requires the role holder to build strong, proactive relationships with internal clients across all offices. Positive working relationships with the wider Marketing team will be integral to the success of this role.

Responsibilities

You will be responsible for leading tenders and proposals across our Property Platform, for both regional and national opportunities. This includes both legal and/or consultancy tenders and cross-platform proposals.

Developing and sharing best practice

- Working collaboratively with the wider Property New Business team including Senior New Business Manager for Property and Bid Manager for Property.
- Contributing to the Property Content Hub to ensure the precedent bank is up to date and quality content is maintained with support from the New Business Apprentice for Property.
- Maintaining a knowledge and awareness of the work done by teams within the Property Platform.
- Looking for opportunities to cross sell both services from across the Platform, whether for Gateley Legal or the consulting businesses.
- Gathering best practice responses to commonly faced questions and useful case studies, including sector specific experience.
- Sharing examples of best practice and innovative ideas across the Property Platform.
- Support with the Group's tenders inbox and keeping the tender tracker up to date
- Tenders portal management and managing memberships and tender-related online profiles.

Scoping and evaluating bids

- Working with the Bid Manager for Property and wider New Business team to guide the bid/no-bid decision.
- Downloading bid documents and drafting kick-off emails.
- Carrying out research on clients and prospective clients.

Project managing bids

- Drafting, editing and proofreading compelling content for proposals.
- Supporting on content for larger tenders including InDesign templates, CVs, team sheets and case studies.
- Liaising with other support departments (IT, HR, Accounts, Facilities and Compliance) to ensure all information submitted is accurate.
- Ensuring all sales collateral is created within the Gateley brand guidelines.
- Managing tender clarifications.
- Completing supplier questionnaires.

Follow up

- Analysing pitch wins/ losses and following up through a proactive debrief process
